STANFORD, KY. TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1889.

NO. 68

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. T. J. Godby will preach at McKinney at 3 o'clock Sunday evening.

—Two of the oldest men in the county gave thanks at the sacramental service at the Christian church Sunday—for the bread, James R. Warren, 85, and for the wine, J. L. Dawson, 83.

—Dr. Frederick Upham, of Fairhaven, Mass., has just celebrated his 90th birthday, which was also his 69th year of his ministry. He has been with the New England Conference since 1821 and still fills an appointment.

—The Cumberland Presbyterian church added to its membership during the past year, upon examination, 13,093, making the entire membership 160,185, divided into 2,689 congregations, with 1,505 ministers, 248 licentiates and 231 candidates.

—Rev. George O. Barnes, en route to his southern home, will preach at the Christian church Thursday evening next at 3 o'clock. A dispatch from him received yesterday says he will preach also at Walnut Tuesday night and at Lancaster Wednesday night.

—Sam Jones, the evangelist, is reported to be very much broken in health as the result of overwork, and his physicians have ordered him to cease all his preaching and travel and take absolute rest. The physicians deserve a vote of thanks for their thoughtfulness.

—A Methodist preacher named Duran was arrested in Chambers county, Ala., and lodged in jail, charged with passing counterfeit money. At the trial he proved that the money came from the contribution box at his church and that of eight silver dollars deposited seven had proved spurious. He said God and the sinners who passed the coins were the only ones who knew it and the case was dismissed.

—Bro. Gibson told of a lady Sunday, a member of the congregation, who lived less than half a mile from the courthouse and is a subscriber to the INTERIOR JOURNAL, who said she did not know that the present meeting was to be held. She must devote her entire attention to the personal column. Notice of the meeting was given nearly six months ago and at intervals since and it is her own fault if she remained in ignorance of it.

—Rev. A. P. Cobb arrived on time and the long advertised meeting at the Christian church began under favorable auspices Sunday night. Mr. Cobb is a clear and forcible speaker, with an attractive presence and good delivery and has favorably impressed the large crowds who attended the services, which are held at 10:30 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. The subject for to-night's discourse is "The Model Young Man." The meeting will continue certainly till next Sunday and perhaps longer.

NO ANXIETY ABOUT HERSELF.—Among the guests at an old lady's recent birthday party was her son. As the old lady was celebrating her centennial and the son was 80 years old they made a remarkable couple. The mother, in spite of her years was so strong and vigorous, both mentally and physically, that it seemed almost incredible that she had rounded out a full century of existence, and her son had been absent from her for several years. The meeting between them had been very affectionate, and they had remained close to each other during the son's stay. When the time came for him to go he embraced his mother, saying wistfully, "Well, mother, I suppose this is the last time I shall ever see you." The mother looked up quickly and astonished. "Why, dear, what's the matter?" she asked. "Don't you feel well?"—Boston Advertiser.

Chauncey Depew recently told a good story of himself. "When I was traveling to New Haven" on an accommodation," said he, "I thought that the whole State of Connecticut had its attention fixed on the fact that I was to make a speech to the law school graduates at Yale. When a farmer got on at a way station and, after looking at me five minutes, asked if I was not Chauncey Depew, I said to myself, 'Here is an intelligent son of an intelligent State. He is going on to hear my speech.' He confirmed my impression by asking: 'Are you going up to New Haven?' but when I answered 'Yes' he simply said, 'Base ball game, I suppose?'"

To the Voters of Lincoln County.

My friends throughout the county know I am a candidate for re-nomination and endorsement at the hands of my party at the approaching Primary Election for office of Jailer, and I deem it proper to say to them that I am prevented from making an active personal canvass from this time to the Primary Election for several reasons, which are these: Circuit Court is near at hand and the jail is full of prisoners from this county and others, charged with offenses from the highest to the lowest; the Court of Claims will be in session next week. These things require me to be at the post of duty. In addition to this my brother Soc has been stricken down with paralysis and requires all the attention I can spare at his bedside. For these reasons I urge every friend I have to come to the Primary Election and to urge every other friend and supporter to come. I am asking for an endorsement, that which is accorded to every other man without opposition, who is a candidate for a county office. If I have made a faithful officer show me, for appreciation of it by coming out and giving me your support. No man can be nominated if his friends stay at home. I will thank you for coming and for your votes.

SAMUEL M. OWENS.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—The lovely weather of last week gave the farmers a chance to rush their small grain into the ground and they took advantage of it.

—The trial of Estes for cutting Warren was to come off Saturday, but was again continued. The parties seem yet to be wary from the amount of guns seen in town Saturday on each side. Citizens, all this will do no good, come fairly down to the law and let it be settled thereby. Take it coolly, whether for you or against you.

—The Crab Orchard Salts Co. have suspended indefinitely from receiving any more salts from the producers on account of the productions far exceeding their ability to dispose of them. They have several thousand pounds accumulated and the production has reached a point beyond the demand. Many of the furnaces will shut down. The company has been paying 18 cents a pound for the salts and some furnaces make 200 to 400 pounds a week. The suspension cuts off considerable revenue, which means bread and meat for many poor people, who depend on the business for a living.

—Mr. Lenich, having disposed of his interest in the drug store to E. W. Jones, will return to Greenville, O. Dr. Zeiler will remain with us. J. R. Bailey and wife and Mrs. J. A. Newland have returned, the former from Louisville and the latter from Indianapolis. Dr. Cooper has returned from Washington. Mrs. Peter Carmany is very low. Mrs. Livingston has been very sick with pleurisy at her daughter's, Mrs. S. B. Pennington. Miss Belle Livingston is with her. J. Reynolds and Josh Wilson were carried by and got the benefit of the scare at Gun Sulphur. A party from Pittsburgh became so frightened when the accident occurred that they jumped out of the windows and Mrs. M. C. Niel sprained her ankle severely.

MT. SALEM.

—John C. Estes died of typhoid fever, on the 1st inst., aged 38 years. He leaves a wife and 7 children, 5 boys and 2 girls.

—Elder S. A. Butt has been conducting a meeting at the Richards' school-house at nights for the past week; 4 additions to date.

—The Standard Oil Company's stock is stated at $130,000,000.

—In the third race at Latonia Saturday three horses fell and Jockeys Magee, Brown and Nailing were seriously injured.

—The Supreme Court of Iowa has rendered a decision affirming the constitutionality of the prohibition law of that State.

—Allen Brown, colored, one of the rioters at Marion, Miss., was sentenced to be hanged November 18. The case will be appealed.

—Lewis and Cyrus Goff, brothers, quarreled over a game of chance at Winchester and the former cut the latter's throat, killing him.

—There are now 339 cotton mills in the South, where there were only 142 in 1880. South Carolina heads the list with Georgia a good second.

—The negro, Stark, who fired into a church at Moss Point, Ala., murdering a man and wounding his daughter, was killed by a posse while he was resisting arrest.

—At Millersburg, Deputy Sheriff Joe Forsyth shot and seriously wounded Sylvester Williams, a drunken negro who insulted some white ladies and then resisted arrest.

—Felix Kampf, of Kanawha, W. Va. accused his daughter of stealing two flat irons and attacked her with a dagger. The son interfered and he stabbed them both to death.

—The news comes from Kansas that although the election is a long time off, there is already outcropping strong opposition to the return of Mr. Ingalls to the United States Senate.

—During a desperate fight with convicts in Pulaski county, Ga., one of them was killed. Five escaped, but three were recaptured. A guard's life was saved by two of the prisoners.

—The League base ball season ended Saturday. New York wins the championship, with Boston two games behind. Chicago 3d, Philadelphia 4th, Pittsburgh 5th, Cleveland 6th, Indianapolis 7th and Washington 8th. The Association season will end Oct. 17.

—There are nearly 8,000,000 colored people in the democratic Southern country, and they have but one member of Congress to represent them," says the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette (Rep.) There are nearly 80,000 colored people in the State of Ohio, and they have not so much as one postmaster to represent them.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Jigs (speaking of the influence cast over things by the presence of certain individuals)—I know a man so holy that every time he goes out sailing you can see the waves spray. "Humph," murmured Jigs, "I know a man so profane that whenever he goes into a crockery store you can hear the glassware."—New York Herald.

Primary Election.

At a meeting of the democratic committee, held at Stanford, Oct. 5th, the following officers were appointed to hold the primary election in their precincts, on the 19th inst:

Stanford, No. 1 and 2—J. E. Lynn and R. L. Hubble, judges; W. A. Tribble, clerk.

Stanford, No. 3 (Hubble)—Sam Engleman, John Bright, judges; Ben Swope, clerk.

Turnersville—James M. Carter, R. H. Givens, judges; J. H. Venhook, clerk.

Hustonville—L. B. Adams, John S. Goode, judges; J. M. Cook, clerk.

Highland—A. J. Henry, Henderson Bangh, judges; Charley Perry, clerk.

Waynesburg—Henry Caldwell, Jr., Rubin Curtis, judges; Frank Howard, clerk.

Kingsville—Robert Rigney, Tipton Simms, judges; B. F. Parker, clerk.

Crab Orchard—W. D. Walden, S. A. Middleton, judges; E. W. Jones, clerk.

Walnut Flat—J. M. Coffey, W. A. Hail, judges; Hugh Seargent, clerk.

The vote shall be by ballot and shall commence and close at the same hours as the regular elections. Democrats and minors of democratic proclivities, who will attain their majority by the next August election, shall be allowed to vote, and the names of the voters shall be recorded in a poll-book. The boxes containing the ballots shall be counted by the officers and the number for each candidate shall be certified on the poll-book and returned on the following Monday to the chairman of the county committee, who will with one or more of the committee count and declare the results.

T. D. NEWLAND, Ch'n.

D. W. VANDEVEER, Sec'y.

HUBBLE.—We were very much delighted to have your business manager with us last Friday. The object of his visit, so far as your correspondent was able to learn, was purely social, with the exception of an intimation or two which was a little suspicious, that he was on a political mission. However, be that as it may, this county is chuck full of friends of Ed and would gladly welcome him back again. Our farmers are busily seeding and delivering their present crop of wheat to the Lancaster Mill Co., which has been under contract for some time at 75 cents per bushel. Rev. T. J. Godby, who has charge of the McKendree in connection with the Stanford church, came out and preached for us Sunday evening. Quite a good congregation was to hear him and the universal expression was, "pleased." He will commence a protracted service on Monday evening, the 14th, at this place. Messrs. S. S. Myers and Richard Walter and Miss Nannie Walter and others were down to hear the initiatory sermon. The election returns show that all the candidates will get a fair vote in precinct No. 3. The prohibition element seems to be very indifferent as to the primary. Miss Mary Bright, of your city, has been on a week's visit to Miss Maggie Swinebroad. I understand that Mr. Ben Swope received a telegram Saturday evening from Lexington stating that his brother Jack was dangerously ill. E. A. White and sister, Mattie, are making their relatives a short visit at Hustonville.

—W. P. Elliston neglected to lock his safe at Elliston Station and thieves took $350 from it.

—Paul Key, the negro who outraged a young white girl, was hung at Fredericksburg, Va., Friday.

—Four Mississippi merchants were burned to death as they slept in Lot's restaurant at Winona, Miss. The loss by the fire was $35,000.

—Engineer Twombly, whose drunkenness caused the Rock Island wreck, has been held in $25,000. He will be tried for murder in the first degree.

—Charles B. Pratt, an Alderman, church treasurer and trusted cashier, was arrested at Meriden, Ct., for embezzling over $10,000. He confessed his guilt.

—According to the weather crop bulletin, issued by the Signal Service Bureau, the greater portion of the tobacco crop is housed in Kentucky and Tennessee, without material damage from the frosts that have fallen.

A WHALE'S WEIGHT.—Nilsson remarks that the weight of the great Greenland or right whale is 100 tons, or 220,000 pounds, equal to that of 88 elephants or 440 bears. The whalebone in such a whale may be taken at 3,360 pounds and the oil at from 140 to 170 tons. The remains of the fossil whale which have been found on the coast of Ystad, in the Baltic, and even far inland in Wangapause, Westergothland, betoken a whale which, although not more than 50 or 60 feet in length, must at least have had a body 27 times larger and heavier than that of the common or right whale.

For more than 30 years Jacob Jackson, a respectable colored man, who died in Massapequa last week, is said to have carried in his mouth a silver Mexican half dollar to charm the evil spirits away. The coin was removed only when he ate his meals. It was worn perfectly smooth.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Mrs. Mary Barlow, an old lady on the West Side, died at the age of 70 years last week.

—Cabell Denny and "Toad" West are attending the teachers' meeting at Hamilton College, Lexington.

—Rev. J. C. Randolph preached his farewell sermon at the Presbyterian church last Sunday week. He will remove to Canada, but not as a bank cashier.

—John W. Petty, the oldest son of Joe M. Petty, died in Missouri last week. His father and mother, who had been summoned by wire, were both with him when he died and brought his body here for burial.

—Saturday afternoon while some tinners were repairing the top of the courthouse steeple roof, by some means the fire from their fire pot set fire to the woodwork at the top and was soon fanned into a blaze by the wind. For a time it looked rather squally and but for the daring efforts of Mort Rothwell the structure might have been destroyed.

—Col. D. R. Collier and son, William, are at home with Mrs. D. R. Collier, who is dangerously ill. Mrs. W. C. McFarland and Mrs. W. G. Dunlap have gone to Mammoth Cave. Gen. W. J. Landrum went to Frankfort on professional business last week. Col. W. A. Hoskins is here to visit the bedside of his sick daughter, Mrs. D. R. Collier. Miss Dove Harris is very sick with typhoid fever.

—The county committee of Garrard finished the nominations for county officers by declaring Curt Robinson for Sheriff, Tom Wherritt for clerk, Ben Dunn for assessor and Hiram Campbell for school superintendent, the nominees of the party. W. E. Walker for judge, Sam Rothwell for jailer and H. C. Kauffman for attorney had been formerly nominated. This makes a strong ticket and one that will be elected.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Meshack Gentry bought a pair of work mules at $225.

—F. L. Thompson. Just from city. Immense stock. Jack Adams' stand. Go see.

—Mrs. Amanda Ramsey, a deserving widow, has, through the efforts of Gov. McCreary, been granted a pension with back pay amounting to $700.

—A horse belonging to Jeff Hansel, while standing near the railroad track, was frightened at a train and in attempting to turn fell and broke its leg.

—Twenty old fence rail rifles, including a flint lock, in town Saturday at a beef shooting match. Strange to say, old flint lock didn't get any beef.

—Hiram and John Hurd, brothers, had a fistfight Saturday evening in which John was worsted, receiving a whack on the side of his head from a pistol in Hiram's hands. Drunk.

—Jim Ballew, living one mile north of town, accidentally cut his hand Sunday evening while chopping candy from a pan and while sitting before the fireplace fainted and fell into the coals and was dangerously burned before he could be rescued.

—A lively chase was given the would-be mail and express robbers Sunday night near Hazel Patch, but they managed to elude their pursuers. It is believed they will be captured soon, as one is badly scratched up on account of his fall from the mail door and the other is thought to be wounded from shots fired at him as he ran on the night of the attempted robbery.

—Frank Prewitt, an 11-year-old boy on his way home from school, exploded a dynamite cap by scratching it with his finger nail. He lost the half of one thumb, one finger and both hands were badly lacerated, portions of the cap going through his hands. George Hiatt, a little negro, had stolen a number of the caps from Mrs. Welsh's corn crib, where they were kept for safety and had given them to the school children, who fired some of them by building a fire and throwing the explosives into it.

—Our friend, S. R. Kennedy, master of trains on the O. & N., reports times good and says he is doing nicely. R. E. Thompson shipped a car of cattle and hogs to Cincinnati Saturday. J. D. Huff and family, accompanied by Walker Higginbotham and Gus Stewart leave today, Tuesday, for Sheridan Lake, Colorado; the former to remain, the latter on an investigating tour. J. M. Williams is in Louisville as a witness in the U. S. Court against Preston Bullock, charged with having stolen a mail pouch at Livingston two weeks since.

The farmer who strays off habitually to town or elsewhere for pasture loses interest in his work, forgets what is to be done and goes down to the dogs by sure degrees, leading a pinched and miserable life on land that might have supplied him and his with more than competence.—N. Y. Tribune.

Is giving splendid satisfaction to the trade and the sales are positively marvelous, which can be accounted for in no other way except that it is without doubt the best on the market. Ask for and be sure you get the genuine. We keep it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

—OF—

Splendid Bargains

Now crowded into our shelves and piled on our counters for the season. See if any House on earth does or can match these figures on the same quality of goods:

4,000 yards Best Standard Calico in Choice Fall Styles at 5 cents per yard, worth 7c.

One full case of Heavy Cheviot Shirting at 5c a yard. Always the best Brown or Bleached Muslin for any stated price to be found in any retail store in Kentucky. Try it and see if it is not so. The

Hat & Shoe Departments

Just teem with attractions for the season. We display the largest line of Shoes ever shown in Stanford, and prices are absolutely beyond comparison for cheapness.

Men's, Children's and Boy's Hats and Caps at scarcely half value. We bought them by the thousands and can sell them cheap or give them away. The stock of Clothing!

Is larger and cheaper than ever known. Men's and Boy's Suits and single garments at amazingly low prices. Our Coats $2.50 up. Heavy Pants for men 75c to $1.25; Suits $3.50 up, heavy for Winter.

There is scarcely anything you can name to wear that you don't find in our stock, cheap. Blankets, Comforts, Spreads, &c., way down in price. You can't tell much about it unless you drop in. The assortment of

DRESS GOODS

Is immense. Cheap 5 and 10-cent Dress Goods this season are beautiful and durable. It will pay you to look at them. The

Millinery Department

Is given special attention. Hundreds of lovely Hats and Bonnets are displayed at scarcely half regular price.

Our sole ambition is to make this establishment in future in a greater degree than ever the People's Headquarters for all lines of goods. We conduct a general Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoe and Notion Store and buy in enormous quantities for four large stores and can do name prices that are lower than can be found in any retail House in Kentucky.

W. P. WALTON.

THERE is more rottenness to the square inch in the State of Ohio than in any other spot on the face of God's green earth. The present campaign is bringing it out in great sluices, which threaten to deluge Foraker and his crowd. In his speech in Cincinnati a few nights since, Campbell, the democratic candidate for governor, read a letter that produced a sensation even in that wicked city. It was from Topp, Chairman of the Board of Public Works, appointed by Foraker, to a city contractor. It reads as follows: "Please make out your bills for gravel $1 a yard and you pay me a drawback of 25 cents a yard in cash. I bought your gravel very cheap and it is fairly worth to the city $1. Send them to me at Put-in-Bay and I will O. K. them." Foraker responds that Topp is crazy and that he has known it for some time, yet he has made no move to displace him. There is too much method in such madness and Little Breches will find it hard to make people believe that his show of indignation is real. Foraker is a fraud of the first feather.

THE Anti-Mahone republicans, who compose the better element of the party in Virginia, held a conference in Richmond, last week, and arraigned the little boss in the most unequivocal terms. Among other things they declared that Mahone made it impossible for the Norfolk ticket to be elected; that he has deceived the Republican National Committee by false pretenses; that his plan of organization is both hateful and tyrannical; that he has driven from the councils of the party the ablest men in it; that he has refused to abide by the decisions of the republican party in National Convention assembled, and that he has forfeited the right to the confidence of the people of Virginia.

THE Civil Service law, although advocated by Harrison while he was Senator and endorsed by the republican platform, is as flagrantly ignored by the present administration as if it was not on the statute books. In the railway mail service, which is now under civil service rule, there have already been 2,434 dismissals, while during the whole of Cleveland's term, when the law was not applicable to that branch of the service, but 1,999 changes were made for all causes, including 768 resignations. The republican party is the party of spoils and to get them no law is allowed to stand in its way.

THE Rev. George Washington Hatton, of Cincinnati, a colored divine, has given up his sacred calling for the menial but more lucrative one of janitor of the Louisville Custom House. This is a very small plum to drop from the rich man's table into the mouth of the poor negro, whose vote elected the person who presides at it, but even small favors are thankfully received by the race, which is in as much bondage politically as it used to be physically.

THE Iowa Supreme Court has rendered a decision which will be received with gratification by everyone who has suffered the tortures of a charivari. A young man shot one of his tormentors to death and was sentenced to seven years for it, but the higher court ruled that the killing was justifiable and ordered the release of the prisoner. The court is right. The average man or boy who goes into the charivari business deserves to be shot and killed too.

THE editor of the Louisville Truth, Mr. Benjamin Ridgely, is a great big, jolly, good natured fellow, who does not believe in striking a man when he is down. The other day Col. John Cain attacked him for something he had said in a facetious way about him in the paper and endeavored to use his cane, but Mr. Ridgely threw him down and sat on him till mutual friends removed the seat. The colonel will never be guilty of a like indiscretion again.

FATHER BOYLE, a Catholic priest, has just been sentenced to death at Raleigh, N. C., after a sensational trial for the rape of a 15-year old girl, whom he enticed into his study. Reports from the various places that he has lived show him to be a very bad egg, using the livery of Heaven to enable him to raise money to be spent in riotous living with harlots.

THE Owensboro Messenger has increased its size to 32 columns, making it one of the largest as it is one of the best dailies in the State. Urey Woodson seems to have a gold mine in the possession of a newspaper property in one of the most enterprising towns in the State.

The county committee met Saturday, but failed to change the ballot way of voting at the primary or to fix some test as to a man's democracy. The proceedings with the list of officers appointed to hold the primary election, Oct. 19, appear elsewhere in this issue.

A Mississippi woman fell into a millpond and when she was rescued a ten-pound catfish was entangled in her bustle. Her husband wanted to set her again, but she would not consent.—Ex.

WINCHESTER has a section of street car track, but no cars to speak of. Tom Stuart, had a charter passed by the last legislature, giving him the right to build a street railroad in that growing city. It was to expire on the 6th of the month, but Mr. Stuart was under the impression that it held till Nov. 6th. He got home on the night of the 5th and learning his mistake he had the city council called together and after getting permission put 50 men to work by electric light at once. He borrowed rails and ties from railroad men and now has a section of street railroad built, thus saving his charter. Tom is hustler, but he must have that road in running order by the time the editors meet in Winchester, or he will lose his reputation as such.

This from the Louisville Commercial is unworthy of the man who is supposed to edit the paper:

"Until I looked into the statistics of our trade with South America I had no idea."—Interview of Hon. J. B. McCrea in New York paper.

Right you are, James. That's what we all believe.

"We all" do not believe any such thing, nor do we think the editor of the Commercial is such a monstrous fool as to believe it.

HOMER PRINCE, who has for two years presided with marked ability as editor-in-chief of the Hopkinsville Daily New Era, has retired and James R. Wood, brother of Hunter Wood, the owner of the paper, will return to his first love, which he left to go into the revenue service, and of which responsibility Mr. Harrison has kindly relieved him. Mr. Prince will no doubt find other newspaper work, as he is too good a man at the business to remain out of it.

The result of the elections shows Washington and North and South Dakota hopelessly republican, but Montana seems certainly to have elected Toole, democrat, for governor, and by the way, he is a Kentuckian, together with a legislature that will add two more democratic U. S. Senators to the list. Notwithstanding this, the republican candidate for Congress was elected by a majority of 1,600, accounted for by the unpopularity of the democratic candidate.

JUDGE GRESHAM is reported as saying that the democracy will nominate Grover Cleveland for president in 1892 and that "he can see no possible way by which Mr. Cleveland can be defeated." The judge demonstrates his sagacity in this remark and proves that he is as good a prophet as he is an upright and incorruptible jurist.

THE Louisville Post is a good paper, but in its effort to issue a double number it should not use the same matter on more than one page. Friday's issue had dozens of articles used twice in the same number. Boiler plate matter would be better than that, if your own printers would allow it.

THE Mayor's order closing the gambling shops in New Orleans, which placed their business as boldly as if it were legitimate, caused two of the gamblers to commit suicide. If a few more of such gentry would follow suit, the world would be none the worse for it.

THE Louisville Commercial says that Mr. Edward L. Davison, Jr., of the Post staff, will leave for the mountains this week to take charge of the Pineville Messenger as editor and manager. He is spoken of very highly as an all-around newspaper man.

THE prohibitionists can pick their flints and take fresh courage. Constitutional prohibition was adopted by a small majority in North Dakota last week. It is a long lane that has no turning, to be sure.

NEWS CONDENSED

—The Kansas City elevated railroad has failed for a million of dollars.

—The steamboat Corona, bound from New Orleans to the Ouchita river, with a full list of passengers, exploded her boilers near Ambroth, 150 miles above New Orleans, and sank instantly. Thirty-six people perished and many others were injured. The boat was valued at $30,000.

—The railroad bridge across Tate's Creek, near Lexington, is to be 286 feet high, or one inch higher than the Tyrone bridge on the Louisville Southern. With the High Bridge on the Cincinnati Southern this will give Kentucky three of the highest structures of the kind in the world.

—Hon. Thomas H. Woods, appointed Chief Justice of Mississippi by Gov. Lowry, is a brother of Dr. John D. Woods, the genial ex-public printer. The new chief justice is the most promising lawyer of the Meridian bar. He is a native of Barren county, Ky., and an uncle of the talented editor of the Glasgow Times.—Louisville Times.

—Five weeks ago Mrs. Mary Gain at Bridgeport, N. Y., swallowed her false teeth. She had suffered untold agony and been reduced to a skeleton, when the surgeons, as a last resort, placed her under chloroform, cut into her stomach and removed the teeth. The operation was successfully accomplished and she is in a fair way to recover.

A DESPERATE

Cutting Affair

—AT—

THE LOUISVILLE STORE.

At this stage of the season we find ourselves

FEARFULLY OVERSTOCKED

And most inconvenient of all is the limited space we must put up with, as our store is actually too small for the large stock of goods we handle; therefore New Goods Must Go Down; and as it

Requires More than Talk to Move 'Em

Mr. Urbansky has issued positive instructions to each department to miss no sales under any consideration. "Get the goods out, no matter if you only get cost for some," is his edict in general and goes this week without limit or reserve. That his instructions are being strictly obeyed and desperate cuts are being made in prices in every department, pay us a visit this week and your time and money will not be wasted.

No old stock or odds and ends, but a grand assortment of New Fall Goods at lower prices, mark the term, Lower Prices, than same qualities can be sold at any other House in Stanford. We opened the last few weeks hundreds of cases of new goods in Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Carpets, Trunks, &c. Don't buy until you visit our store.

Talk about Bargains, we will Give you such Values as will Open your Eyes with Astonishment. We are too busy to name prices. Not alone do we give such Immense Bargains, but we also give you a Ticket with every Dollar's worth of Goods for a Chance on a $200 Organ, which we give away during Christmas week at the LOUISVILLE STORE.
